Qualifications for participation in the Republican Party: All legal and qualified voters under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia and the Prince William County Republican Party in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts. Other important membership requirements and qualifications are in the Republican Party of Virginia's Plan of Organization at <http://www.RPV.org>.

Election to Membership: the Committee must approve Membership either at the biennial county convention or at a subsequent meeting. Dues for the biennium are $50. Members elected before April, 2009 may elect to pay $25 at the time of application and $25 on or before April 30, 2009. Members who fail to pay the second installment shall lose their membership privileges. Members elected on or after April 30, 2009 shall pay $25 at the time of application. All memberships expire on the date of the biennial convention in 2010. Membership fees are not refundable.

Attendance Requirement: Members of the Committee are expected to attend meetings of the Committee and participate in its activities. According to the Republican Party of Virginia Plan of Organization, missing 3 consecutive meetings of the Committee without providing a proxy causes active membership and voting privileges to lapse. Reinstatement does not require an additional fee.

Please bring completed application and dues to a Committee meeting or mail to:
